C. Robin Janning: Reconciled
CVA 2019 Exhibit "The Jesus Movement"

The artist comments, “Walking with …Jesus, we find a place where all are brought into harmony... we are reconciled.” For her art making is her daily practice for meditation and prayer”.

This painting can be thought of as an image of St. Luke’s weekly affirmation of God’s call to us to walk with Jesus as “agents of reconciliation” and our need for courage and wisdom to do so.

Amen.

From the Christian Tradition in the 2nd Century: Acts 16:9-15

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer; and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us. "Here ends the reading.

Psalm 67: Deus misereatur

1 May God be merciful to us and bless us,*
   show us the light of his countenance
   and come to us.

2 Let your ways be known upon earth,*
   your saving health among all nations.

3 Let the peoples praise you, O God;*

4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy,*
   for you judge the peoples with equity
   and guide all the nations upon earth.

5 Let the peoples praise you, O God;*
   let all the peoples praise you.

6 The earth has brought forth her increase;*
   may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

7 May God give us his blessing,*
   and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

Here ends the reading.

From the Christian Gospels: John 14:23-29

Priest: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ According to John.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words, but is from the Father who sent me.

"I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything, and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur, you may believe."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.
