When the disciples had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread…. And Jesus said to them, “Come have breakfast.”… And (after they had eaten) he said to them, “Follow me and feed my sheep."

The disciples met him again after he had been killed. And then after they had been formed into a little society or community they found God somehow inside them as well: directing them, making them able to do things they could not do before.

The Collect of the Day:  O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

From the Christian Tradition in the 2nd Century:  Acts 9:1-6, (7-20)

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Here ends the reading.

Psalm 30:  Exaltabo te, Domine

1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up * and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

2 O Lord my God, I cried out to you, *
   and you restored me to health.

3 You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead; *
   you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

4 Sing to the Lord, you servants of his; *
   give thanks for the remembrance of his holiness.

5 For his wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, *
   his favor for a lifetime.

6 Weeping may spend the night, *
   but joy comes in the morning.

7 While I felt secure, I said, "I shall never be disturbed. *
   You, Lord, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."

8 Then you hid your face, *
   and I was filled with fear.

9 I cried to you, O Lord; *
   I pleaded with the Lord, saying,

10 "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *
   will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?

11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me; *
   O Lord, be my helper."

12 You have turned my wailing into dancing; *
   you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

13 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *
   O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

Here ends the reading.

From the Christian Gospels:  John 21:1-19

Priest: The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ

According to John.

People:  Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea.

But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish.

This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

THANK YOU FROM NANCY CONROW

Thank to the large number of helpers that became the team to prepare the church for Palm Sunday and Easter services. They showed up on various days doing everything from moving palms, picking up, unloading, trimming, watering and placing Easter lilies, changing table cloths and then cleaning up after all the work. Please thank them for their help:

Anne Bransford, Ashley Newhall, Abbey Cordery, Ann Fiery, Bob & Linda Lux, John and Karan Swanger, Myra Herzog, Sharon Christensen, and especially Ann Deyo who also waters plants and takes care of things throughout the year whenever needed.

And a special note of thanks to Steve Probst who did a masterful woodworking job to make and hang the beautiful new background frames for our stations of the cross. They now have more visible presence and fit to the surrounding church decor.

If you have any items to donate, they will be greatly appreciated! Just leave them on or below the Missions Table. Donation receipts are available: just contact Beckie Raemer (church administrator) or Bonnie Brown. Thank you ! (PS: please no electronics. We often end up having to pay to recycle them when no one wants them)
